DAILY THOUGHT.

'God's great plan needs you and me Will is greater than Destiny, And Love moves the world along."

When the salaries of police officers were reduced by the Republican council in '95, the financial condition of the United States senate. the country was such that reductions re being made in every business and profession. Men were anxious to work for much less than they are the purpose of making political capital now, and there was some excuse for a reduction at that time. Good men could be secured at low salaries, and the national assembly. were anxious to get the places. Now the situation is changed. Times are good, money is plentiful and if police salaries should be larger, there excuse for two Democratic councils refusing to make them so. Anything that is said about that reduction in '95 will react with disastrous results on the Democrats, who for four years have allowed the salaries to remain where the Republican council placed them thus, showing that the salaries that had beenpreviously paid were too large, that the taxpayers had been forced to pay more than the service they received was worth, and that the Republicans had the sense and courage to put the salaries where they belonged. Demorcats, by allowing them to re main there, have voluntarily ratified the action of the Republican council of Illinois, and well known in Padu- adjudicated bankrupt, and that the and have no reasonable grounds for cah, where he i now visiting, said in such criticism as one of the council a memorial speech at Springfield last made the other night. The Sun is not aware that City Attorney Lightfoot was quoted as saying that he would report at the next meeting of the council that there was no way of purchasing the contemplated public park. The Sun stated:

"City Attorney R. T. Lightfoot is not yet ready to announce his opinion in the matter of the city's purchase of the park site in Arcadia, and stated this morning that he had not looked up the law, but expected to do so at

"It is very evident, however, that he is of the opinion that as the city has not the ready money to pay for the ground, she cannot buy it, at least not on the proposed terms of a six years' loan."

This was readily understood by the intelligent, which probably accounts for its being misunderstood by the morning paper.

A SURPRISE MARRIAGE.

Miss Mickie Hansbro and Dr. W. B. McPherson succeeded in most tually surprising their host of friends when they were married on Thursday morning and off for Buffalo before realization of it had dawned on Paducah society. Although the wodding had been an anticipated one, so cleverly was everything planned that even the most intimate friends of each were unaware of the nearness of the event. And it is seldom that Society can deceived about a wedding, generally it has them down-to-date before the prospective bride and groom have quite settled it themselves.

The wedding was at the home Mrs. Linneaus Orme on South Fifth street, and although so quiet an affair, MR. AND MRS. JAMES was exceedingly pretty. Millinery

Dress Goods.

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY Oct. 1 and 2.

We will display the finest line of Pattern Hats ever seen in Paducah. This will be a matchless assembly of autumn and winter styles.

Our great success in the millinery business has been achieved by selling elegant, artistic and becoming Hats conduct by being insolent to Mrs. for less money than our competitors could produce the same hats for.

We will make this display eclipse all former efforts.
